Odisha Madhu Babu Pension Yojana

Madhu Babu Pension Scheme was launched by the Department of Social Security and Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities, Government of Odisha in January 2008 for the first time. This scheme is a merger of two pension schemes name Revised Old Age Pension Rules, 1989 and Disability Pension Rules, 1985. Old age people or PWD or Widows of the state can apply for this scheme. Under this scheme state government will provide a pension to the beneficiaries. This scheme is beneficial for approximately 50 lakh applicants.

1.5 Lakh Beneficiaries To Get Advance Pension

As you all know that due to the covid-19 pandemic most people are going through financial problems. Keeping this in mind the chief minister of Odisha has directed the officials to disburse 3 months of advance pension into the bank account of the beneficiaries of the Madhu Babu Pension Yojana. The pension for the month of June, July, and August will be provided in advance. Nearly 1.5 Lakh beneficiaries will get pension through E payment basis. The rest of the people who do not have a bank account will be provided a pension at their homes. A direction has been issued to the concerned collector by the SSEPD department regarding the disbursement of pension amount into the bank account of the beneficiary. Other than that the government is also going to provide a pension to all those children who have lost their parents due to covid-19 under Madhu babu covid Yojana.

Disbursement Of 3 Month's Advance Pension Due To COVID-19

Madhu Babu Pension Yojana is a pension scheme. Through this scheme, a pension is provided to the citizens of Odisha. On 1st June 2021 chief minister of Odisha, Mr. Naveen Patnaik conducted a review meeting. In this review meeting, he instructed the officials to disburse the amount of pension of 3 months in advance to all the beneficiaries. This decision has been taken keeping in mind the prevailing situation of covid-19. The beneficiaries will get the amount of pension in their respective village in cash. Due to these decisions, the beneficiaries will get financial assistance and will be able to carry out their day-to-day activities efficiently.
